Vision, Mission and School Wide Learner Outcomes

“Ensuring High Levels of Success for All”

The community of El Rancho High School is committed to creating an environment in which students develop the skills and ethics to be college and career ready. This will be achieved through a student centered, teacher guided curriculum that recognizes diversity in a climate of positive parental involvement.

El Rancho High School is committed to providing students with an education that is rigorous, engaging, and standards based. Our highly qualified staff, along with parents and the community, will support student achievement to:

- Improve literacy and writing skills through a shift to the Common Core Standards and complex texts
- Develop the skills to become productive members of the global community
- Emphasize graduating college and career ready, having met the A-G requirements, with the goal of entering and graduating from a 4-year university
- Acquire 21st Century skills, including critical thinking and evidence-based analysis, technological, collaborative and communication skills

Community

El Rancho High School is located in the city of Pico Rivera. The city is a suburb of Los Angeles and is located 13 miles southeast of Los Angeles. El Rancho High School is the only comprehensive high school in a city of 63,522 with 91.2% of residents identifying themselves as ethnically Latino. Pico Rivera has an estimated 16,464 households with a median family income of $55,203. El Rancho’s 2,216 students reflect the ethnic make-up of the city, which is 91% Latino. Approximately 61% of the students qualify for free/reduced lunch.

Curriculum

The academic program is organized on a semester block schedule. Thirty credits per semester is the maximum course load. A minimum of 220 credits is required for graduation. ERHS is proud to be part of the first school district in California to require ethnic studies for graduation. ERHS is committed to providing students with an array of rigorous course offerings that meet college preparation requirements. ERHS is an AVID school, implementing AVID strategies school wide. ERHS became an authorized International Baccalaureate Diploma Program School offering 13 IB courses, beginning with the class of 2020. In addition to IB, ERHS is offering five Honors courses and 17 AP courses.
